EDUCATION

2022 – 2028	New York University Ph.D. in Philosophy
2017 – 2021	University of California, Los Angeles B.A. in Philosophy, B.S. in Mathematics

RESEARCH

- ‘Selecting the criteria of model selection’
In preparation
- ‘Compositional format beyond the symbolic-iconic divide’
In preparation, supervised by Ned Block (NYU)
- ‘A neurobiological challenge to cognitive compositionality’
In preparation, supervised by Ned Block (NYU)
- ‘Origins of goal representations’
In preparation, supervised by Ned Block (NYU)
- ‘Contextualism about truth with doxastic contexts’
In preparation, co-authored with James Walsh (NYU) and Lorenzo Rossi (Turin)

COURSEWORK

- Graduate philosophy: the philosophy of psychology, the philosophy of consciousness, intensional logic, the logic of truth, ancient logic, Bayesian epistemology, natural kinds, explanations in special sciences, ethics, Kant
- Undergraduate philosophy: the philosophy of psychology, the philosophy of language, modal logic, epistemology, the philosophy of gender and race, ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy, early modern European philosophy, Kant, Heidegger, Wittgenstein, Frege, Russell, Kripke
- Graduate mathematics: model theory, topics in model theory (stable theory), computability theory, set theory, differential topology
- Undergraduate mathematics: honors calculus, differential equations, honors analysis, complex analysis, differential geometry, linear algebra, honors algebra, probability theory, graph theory, algorithms, machine learning
- Graduate CS (audited): computational cognitive modeling, information theory, machine learning, deep learning, NLP
- Undergraduate CS: introductory programming in C++, intermediate programming in C++, intro programming in python, cyber security, machine learning, algorithms

AWARDS & FELLOWSHIP

AI and Data Ethics Summer Fellowship, 2026
NYU College of Arts and Sciences Outstanding Teaching Award, 2026

NYU McCracken Fellowship, 2022-2027

UCLA Kalish Prize for Intellectual Excellence in Philosophy, 2020

UCLA Kalish Prize for Intellectual Excellence in Philosophy, 2021

UCLA Gloria Rock Award in Philosophy, 2021

TEACHING

Primar Instructor – NYU Department of Philosophy (Summer 2024)

- Course taught: contemporary epistemology

Teaching Assistant – NYU Department of Philosophy (2024 – present)

- Courses taught: set theory, the philosophy of mathematics, the philosophy of mind

Teaching Assistant – UCLA Department of Philosophy (2021 – 2022)

- Courses taught: the philosophy of mind, early modern European philosophy.

SERVICE

Committee Member – NYU MAPS (2024 – present)

Committee Member – NYU Department of Philosophy Climate Committee (2024 – present)

Conference Organizer – NYU-Columbia Graduate Conference (2022 – 2023)

- Organized submission and review of papers, promoting fairness and diversity.

Research Assistant – UCLA Department of Philosophy (2020 – 2022)

- Visualized stochastic computational models in psychology and neuroscience, as part of Michael Rescorla's project on encodings of probability in perception and action.
- Derived decoders for Bayesian neural networks.

Outreach Officer – UCLA Campus Assault Resources and Education (2018 – 2021)

- Directed social media campaigns raising awareness of campus assault.
- Organized therapy groups for survivors of campus assault.

Research Assistant – W. M. Keck Center for Neurophysics at UCLA (2017 – 2018)

- Built clustering models and regression models in MATLAB, assisting projects on spatial navigation tasks.

SKILLS

- C++, Python, MATLAB, Mathematica
- Mandarin: native, French: intermediate
